

The Democrat.

Thursday, Sept. 9, 1875.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

Eaton families "loaf."

The farmers are plowing. Sweet potatoes and pork. Oysters are now ripe.

Robinson's circus on Thursday.

Moxy Morton on Friday. Prepare for the County Fair.

A new clock is decided upon.

This will be a big week for Eaton. "Rag money" wanted at this office.

The fall corn stalks now flop their ears.

How will spelling schools stand next winter? Grand Military Pic-Nic in Camden on Saturday.

Dog days are over but the dog nights continue.

No prisoners escaped this week from our jail.

Barron street now enjoys the benefit of the sprinkler.

LAWRENCE BARRON, of Columbus, was in town last week.

Our druggists say the demand for ague medicine is good.

In what place are two hands better than one?—In a barrel.

It is better to be "fish" in the pocket than in the face.

Cream of Tartar rubbed on solid white gloves cleanses them well.

Out west they utilize grasshoppers. They make beer out of the hops.

How to get rich—live on air and sleep on a clothes-line.

It is positively asserted that a fashionable woman can't kick.

Our young ladies are no longer the pure gold. They are only pinch-back.

Miss Barry sold 3,000 bunches of pins in one day last week. That was a "cool" trade for one day.

The Cashier of the First National Bank had a double deposit presented to him last week, and not "rag babies."

The S. S. Excursion to the Soldiers Home last Saturday, did not receive many accessions from here.

The Ring is less calamity. Their county ticket don't draw worth a cent.

An exchange says the age is pregnant with trouble.

She is afraid it would get so. She has been behaving herself well lately.

The gentleman who so ably attended to the duties of the Democrat during our two week's absence, has our kindest thanks.

All good things ultimately must have a termination somewhere. The street sprinkler doesn't have as easy times of it now as he did a few weeks ago.

The thoughtful housewife is now engaged in contemplating the old stove-pipe, and wondering if her irascible lord and master can be induced to try to put it up once more.

We learn that somebody has written a book on the art of making people happy without money. We are an excellent subject, and in the proper condition to be experimented on.

Remember that melons and the ague are intimately connected, and if your associate too frequently with the former, the latter will also make your acquaintance and give you a regular old shaking.

A dish-washing machine is the latest invention. They will continue to invent washers, wringers, ironers, sewers and one thing or another, till women will not be worth fifteen cents a dozen.

Weak doses of washboards are now recommended by physicians for ladies who complain of dyspepsia. Young men troubled in the same way may be cured by a strong preparation of say-horse.

Harbingers of approaching fall are making their appearance. The migrating birds have already taken their migratory flight southward, and the shrill chirp of the cricket, rook, or moon-tonian upon the evening air.

"Tramps" are as thick as grasshoppers. Most of them are mighty dry, and the "quarrier" wanted to help them on to the next town, invariably finds his way to the jail of the nearest jail mill.

There are large numbers of thieves, tramps, and worthless characters generally, lying around loose these days, and it would be well for people to take more than usual precaution against their depredations.

A fashionable dressed lady came out of one of our dry goods houses the other day and dropped her handkerchief. She made several efforts to pick it up, but was "pulled back" and finally was obliged to call a small boy to her assistance.

The citizens are exerting every power to get out a "rousing" meeting for Monday. Already two styles of posters have been printed, and the Committee are sending messengers all over the county to urge the faithful to come.

There is no more certain way to build up a place than by encouraging good merchants, good papers, good schools, and good people to settle amongst you. And this can best be done by spending your money at home when you are dealt fairly by.

At the Commissioners meeting on Monday last, it was decided to build an iron bridge over Bait's creek, on the Eaton & Lexington road, and the contract for building the bridge over Paint creek, on the Camden & Fair Haven pike, was let to the Canton Bridge Co.

There is something sublime in the deep forethought—profound sagacity—manifested by the man who drives up and hitches his horse to a stable tree. It affords the animal infinite amusement; while his master is absent, to gnaw the bark from the sapling. Such a man ought to be President of the United States for three terms.

Next to the fire brick dresses, the striped stockings worn by our Eaton girls are the most interesting and attractive fashion freak. The scenery is really beautiful, and the eye is greeted with some lovely models for graceful and shapely barber's poles, when she encounters the gentle zephyr.

A gentleman who came on one of the trains the other day, and was grabbed by the runners of the different hotels in the town, thought it best to divide himself up among them, but on second thought, dismissed the idea and gave each of them a "piece of his mind."

People who owe the printer appear to think that he can live and support his employees, during the summer season, on hot air. It is a mistake. It would be a good thing if a printing office could be run on the same principle, but it can't be done.

A farmer residing in this county, not wishing to be talked to death by candidates and traveling agents, has placed the following sign over the gate leading to his residence: "Small-pox—Beware. Have all the sewing machines we want."

Our old Lowsman, Isaac Morris, Esq., Editor of the Piquette, Miami Herald, was in Eaton last week. Mr. Morris looks well, and since he has gotten under the control of the hypocritical, semi-religious prohibition radicals of Eaton, doubtless looks better and sleeps more soundly. He reports the prohibition party as advancing.

Jail Delivery.

Four of the six prisoners confined in the county jail effected their escape last Thursday evening about 7 o'clock, but were all subsequently recaptured. As nearly as can be learned, for the prisoners are very reticent on the subject, the following are the particulars. Obtaining an old case knife in some way, they improvised a saw with which they sawed off nine of the iron bars of which the jail proper is constructed. Through the hole thus made they descended into the corridor below, and when the boy came in and went up stairs to give them their supper, they rushed out through the door which was left unlocked. Deputy Sheriff L. W. Lewis, who was in the alley back of the jail, saw them and immediately gave chase. They ran as only men running for liberty can run, but in less than five minutes they were recaptured. Several hundred men and boys were in pursuit, hallooing and each moment gaining in numbers. It was an exciting chase. The prisoners, separated, and the first was caught in Bruce's field below town; soon after two others were brought out of Abernethy's corn patch, and the last was found roasting in Col. Foster's chicken-coop. They were returned to jail to lament over their ill fortune.

It was supposed that at last we had a jail which could not be easily broken, but this shows that they are, none of them, in themselves, proof against a determined effort to escape. Of course the jail with which they worked was obtained from some one outside.

Burglary.

For many months our town has been alarmed by houses being broken into, though the burglars never succeeded in getting any thing like a good recompense for their trouble until last Friday evening, when, among other houses they struck that of Mr. Wheeler Frum, and found about $125 in his pants, which they, imitating their Congressional exemplars, took by an act of "general appropriation," and made good their escape. This kind of burglary is not so paying, as formerly, as few people now keep large sums of money about the house, but Mr. Frum had just received the most of the money late in the evening before from the Express office. It is to be hoped that every means will be used to catch the rascals.

Our County Fair.

The Probate Court Agricultural Society is making strenuous efforts to have their twenty-fourth annual exhibition the largest and best one held since the county's organization; and from the lively interest manifested by the officers in charge, we doubt not but that they will succeed. No pains are being spared to make it entertaining and attractive to all, and superior inducements are offered to enlist the aid and co-operation of every farmer, mechanic and manufacturer in the county, as well as every body else who takes any interest whatever in the resources of the county, agricultural or mechanical. The Fair will be held on the 21st, 22nd, 23rd and 24th of September.

Grand Military Pic-Nic.

The Camden Guards Co., O. N. G., will give a fine entertainment at the "Devil's Back Bone," near the village of Camden, on Saturday next. There will be good music on the occasion—speeches from able and eloquent orators—and last but not least a splendid dinner will be served on the occasion, and will be under the supervision of the ladies of Camden, which is sufficient evidence that nothing will be lacking in that line to please everybody. A general invitation is extended to all who desire a day of recreation and enjoyment. We advise every body that can go to do so.

White Shirts, $1.25, $1.50 and $1.75. White Shirts, $2.00 and $2.50, at Jos. Woerner's.

A Sally on Reporters.

The h r of the human race, Reporters ever steady; They quit you here, there, every place, By water, air and land. They rush to meet you in the street, They seek you in your yard; And think it quite a dainty treat To catch you on your guard. They clutch you with a giant grip, And you perhaps must yield; Away from them you cannot slip, Your fate, alas, is sealed. Then mildly telling each case down, With a pleasant leave to roam, And then when he has done you "brown," He kindly says, adieu. Each question answer with a smile, And you will find it true, It wouldn't do you any harm, To smile at such a fellow. For if you did, "wouldn't you be seen In print, next day's edition, And make, for time to come, I mean, Your great and well-earned name?" With a smile like these you are feared, Like wolf or poisoned flea; Most wise, methinks, would soon to "beat" The Hives in his day.

FAIR HAVEN, O., AUG. 1875.

I will sell my SUMMER GOODS at a sacrifice to all. Remember.

M. STURM.
